

neurodiversity TRAINING

Are you a corporate organisation or an employer who wants to be more neuro-inclusive?

Our training packages are designed to give you an insight into our SensationALL neuro-affirming approaches to help you become a more inclusive workplace, embedding a proactive approach to equality, diversity, inclusion and resilience.

These 4-hour workshops are suitable for employees of all levels whether they are neurodivergent or neurotypical.

Our energetic practitioner will lead you through a fun session that will:

- Provide a positive insight into neurodiversity
- Consider different learning & working styles
- Use interactive methods
- Share practical strategies for employees to use in both their work & home life

£350 per workshop

based on 30 people attending

Workshop options include:

- Beyond the Label - learn more about neurodivergent conditions and different presentations
- Making Sense - improve engagement and interaction for neurodivergent employees by considering sensory and communication needs
- Promoting Independence - empower employees in their personal & professional development
- Wellbeing & Resilience - ways to promote self-esteem and self-care.
